Score and Five Couples Obtain Marriage Licenses at Courthouse

The Christmas spirit landed with all four feet in the marriage office at the courthouse yesterday and the jocund scene must have been the envy of many who are present at his office as much as in the adjoining district. "It's about the worst I ever had," said Floyd Powell, license clerk, whose yearly mark on the papers for hundreds of happy couples "We have had a rather light week until today but early this morning the crowd has built up and we have no time to waste."

Twenty-four couples had obtained licenses in the office since the beginning of the year. The most recent were Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Shumate of North Wilson and Mrs. J. C. Palmer of North Wilson, who came to the office yesterday afternoon with a Christmas party they were organizing and dancing scenes were over the recessional.

Mr. Fred Hause, superintendent of the Tulsa High School, was in the lobby and dancing rooms were attractively decorated by Christmas colors and every window was decked out with flowers. The reception will be opened and passed free of charge by the highway Cleaners at Christmas eve.

Mrs. Mildred Shultz and Irene Shultz were licensed in the following members of the community yesterday and the bridegrooms and brides present at his office as much as in the adjoining district. "It's about the worst I ever had," said Floyd Powell, license clerk, whose yearly mark on the papers for hundreds of happy couples. "We have had a rather light week until today but early this morning the crowd has built up and we have no time to waste."

At the last meeting of the city council the ordinance was passed that the city would not be responsible for the cost of the new school building in the business district. The city fathers will be held responsible for the construction.

Miss Ruth Mathews is confined to her room because of a fractured foot which she received in a basketball practice.

An application was given in the high school auditorium yesterday night by 47 children of the third school grade in the business district. The application for a collective amount of the following is as follows and it can be seen at the office of the auditor. Miss Corinne Whiteman.

Sand Springs News

SAND SPRINGS, Dec. 23.—Two accidents were reported yesterday in the city the past week. Two small boys fell into one of two water tanks being held by a large steel drum, and both were pulled out safe. Water was taken from a tank which contained the top of a building but was washed away. His death is feared. The boy was found floating in the water. A Cheyenne, who fell backward into the hot water, is recovering.

The Sand Springs home interest, in charge of C. Evans and B. B. Headling, is as usual doing its part to make the most of the winter season. The home is open and will go without being remodeled Saturday morning from 9 to 11 a. m. and again Saturday evening from 7 to 9 p. m. Christmas bazaar left the home to visit each poor family in Sand Springs and at each station the Sand Springs girls and their mothers will be there. The employees whose salaries were not sufficient to have a real Christmas, have been given a gift of $100 each. The experience distribution in this district.

Mrs. E. H. Elder and son Almon will spend the holidays in Norman with Mrs. Elder's brother, Mr. Austin.

Miss Ruth Mathews will spend the holidays in Texarkana, Ark., with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Wiley will have as their regular dinner guests Christine, Mrs. and Mrs. L. L. Marker and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Miller of Tulsa.

Miss Richard Means, 301 McKinley, entertained her piano pupils at her home yesterday. The pupils were from Muskogee and party. Little Miss Margaret Goss and Nancy Ruth Leslie of Cartersville, Ga., were guests of honor.

Mrs. F. H. Daniels, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Tulsa Hospital, has returned to her home.

Mrs. L. B. Harmon and son L. B. Jr., of Cartersville, Ga., have been guests of their sister, Mrs. Richard Means, 301 McKinley, for the past few days, have returned to their homes.
